Introduction:

78th Independence Day Celebration at Vidyabharti Trust College of Business, Computer Science, and Research, Umrakh

The 78th Independence Day was celebrated with great enthusiasm at Vidyabharti Trust College of Business, Computer Science, and Research, Umrakh. The event, organized on August 15th, was a vibrant display of patriotism, with various competitions that brought out the best in our students.

Character Competition

The Character Competition was one of the highlights of the day. Students were encouraged to embody and present famous historical and contemporary figures who have significantly contributed to the nation's independence and progress. The participants showcased their creativity, research, and presentation skills by dressing up and delivering speeches as these iconic personalities. The audience was impressed by the students' performances, which were not only informative but also inspirational.

Singing Competition

The Singing Competition added a melodious touch to the celebration. Students participated with great enthusiasm, singing patriotic songs that evoked a deep sense of pride and unity. The soulful renditions by the participants resonated with the spirit of Independence Day, filling the air with patriotic fervor. The competition was a beautiful display of the students' musical talents and their love for the country.

Both competitions were judged by a panel of esteemed faculty members who had a tough time selecting the winners due to the exceptional performances by all participants. The winners were awarded certificates and prizes as a token of appreciation for their efforts.

Class Decoration Contest

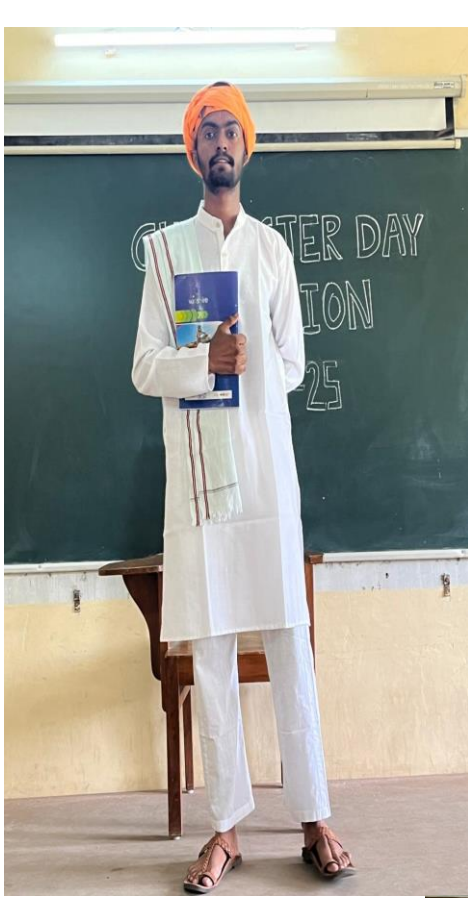

The Class Decoration Contest was another significant part of the day's events. Each class was given the opportunity to showcase their creativity by decorating their classrooms in a patriotic theme. The vibrant decorations included tricolored balloons, flags, and posters reflecting the spirit of Independence Day. The judges had a tough time deciding the winners, as every class put in great effort to make their decorations stand out.
